

Jesus' deliverance and healings – July 17, 2015

At some point in a person's life, he/she will face a need to pray for a miracle. The miracle that most people will be requesting is in the realm of health either their health or a family member's health. There is no lack of need of prayers for the sick because every church each Sunday lifts up names of those who are sick, terminally ill and those on laying on death's doorstep.

People are willing to spend their entire livelihood seeking a health reversal because without health then nothing else matters (in terms of wealth & property). You can't enjoy your possessions if you can't get out of bed without pain.

I encourage you to read each healing instance below in all four gospels and see if you see a pattern.

These were desperate people, humble, they believed that Jesus would heal them, they demonstrated faith by action, and they were obedient to Jesus commands when He told them to go wash or go show themselves. They glorified Jesus after their healings and they followed Him once they were healed.

They had a love of their servants, parents, children and friends that they left their bedside and came to Jesus for a healing. They were persistent and tenacious in their zeal for a healing.

A deliverance preacher wrote in his book that he learned a lot about healings by studying the miracles of Jesus' ministry. Additional deliverances/healings were done by the apostles – but that will be covered in another study.

What percentage of the passages where Jesus was healing a person was the casting out of demons also mentioned? How about 37% in Matthew, 50% in Mark, 52% in Luke and none in John.

	Matthew	Mark	Luke	John
Total number of healings	29	26	29	9
Casting out of Demons	11	13	15	0
% of demon casting vs overall healings	37%	50%	52%	0%

Many times Jesus cast out the demons then the person was healed of the disease as was the case of the crippled woman who had the "spirit of infirmity" for 18 years. Jesus freed her and she immediately straightens up (healing #20 below).

Another time a boy was demonized (healing #15 below) and was epileptic and was suicidal (falling into the fire and water). Jesus rebuked the spirit and healed the boy.

Of the 55 healings, 14 mentioned Jesus touching the person. He used his saliva and made clay on 2 instances and oil on 1 time of those 14 mentioned healings.

Below are just some of the highlights that I took notice of when reading the miracles of healing and deliverance. If you don't believe that all these instances are true then you are not at a point to receive a healing because all the persons who were blessed by healings/deliverances believed in them.

Persons asking for a miraculous healing were on their last option – they had no other options. When you have tried all the conventional "Allopathic" treatments without any improvements then the impossible becomes possible.

out of the box thinking

Could it be that miracles are hindered because we have too many treatment options? One goes down the various treatment options while praying for a miracle healing. Could it be that we prevent miracles from happening? Why?

Jesus doesn't share His victory with anyone. In Judges 7:2 God reduces the 32,000 man army down to 300 because God wanted to ensure the army couldn't say that their military might were the reason why they won.

RSV Judges 7:2 The Lord said to Gideon, "The people with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, 'My own hand has delivered me.'"

What illness can't Jesus cure? Is it a simple fever? Epilepsy?, deafness?, blindness?, paralyzation?, death?, amputation?, suicidal, plagues?...

Jesus cures them all. Man can only treat.

Then why are miraculous healings not happening across the nation's churches?

out of the box thinking / brain storming

Why not healed?

- You may not have enough belief - Mk9:24 "I believe, help my unbelief"
- You may not have enough faith – Mt17:20 "because of your little faith"
- People around you prevent healing – Mk6:5 "He could do no mighty work there"
- Majority of City you are in has unbelievers – Mk8:22-26 "Do not even enter the village"
- Healing is in conjunction with preaching the gospel – Mt9:35 "preaching the gospel...and healing"
- Have person requesting healing been preaching the gospel?
- Have the right gospel been preached?
- Haven't expelled the demon causing the illness first – Lk13:11-13 "spirit of infirmity"

- Haven't fasted – Mk9:29 “this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting”
- May need more people than just yourself - Mk6:7 “send them out two by two”
- May need to wait – Ps27:14 “Wait for the Lord”
- You are using the wrong name – Mk 16:17 “in my name”
- May be a test - Jm1:12 “Blessed is the man who endures trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life”
- The answer could simply be No – Mt26:39 “let this cup pass from me” - did not happen

The apostles didn't carry around a medicine bag of vitamins, herbs & essential oils. They carried the power and authority of Jesus to heal and cast out demons (in the old testament many times they had to repair the temple, purge the temple before rededication could be done – we are the temple of God now so sometimes we need to repair the body as well).

Mar 16:17 And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues;

Mar 16:18 they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

Most churches and their members haven't consistently been performing miraculous healings and deliverances (I'm not knocking them since I haven't laid my hands on people and seen the lame walk and blind to see or raise the dead). I've been wondering why not?

It should cause one to re-evaluate their Christian walk and put their daily actions to the biblical test and lead them to change. 2Pt3:18 tells us to grow in the grace and knowledge. I'm still growing.

2Pe 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

“Insanity is doing the same thing over and over, expecting different results.”

Don't be insane, clean house of the traditions of man in your life and pattern your life and hold firm to the teachings of the bible.
